Baradin (1878-1937), himself Buriat, travelled in Tibet and Mongolia and apparently lived in Kyakhta where he managed the trading company "Sobennikov and Molchanov Brothers". He published i.a. in 1910 a study on Buriat literature and in 1935 a Russian - Buriat dictionary. He also headed for many years the Buriat-Mongolian Institute of History, Language, and Culture and was shot in 1937, but actually quite little is known about him. Scarce. Text in Russian. One of the famous Buddhist temple mountains of China, also having temples influenced by the art of Tibet, where also always Tibetan monks lived. This old connection is here i.a. documented by a photo of the Panchen Lama visiting Wutaishan. There are not many books about these temples. Text in Chinese and English. The book cost originally 72 Dollar. Quite uncommon.

Important

Ferrari, Alfonsa, Luciano Petech and Hugh E. Richardson: Mk'yen brtse's Guide to the Holy Places of Central Tibet, Roma, ISMEO, 1958.

Bestell Nr.: 32095

180,00 €

Original soft cover binding, xxi, 198 pages, 53 illustrations on plates, 3 folding maps (several locations underlined in colour), very good condition. Highly important book. Tibetan text with translation - more important are the more than 700 notes by Petech and Richardson, and the precious historical photos by Hugh Richardson of the described monasteries, many only published here. Even though many monasteries have been rebuilt in the past years, their actual appearance has often changed. Photos published here show i.a. buildings in Lhasa, but also by Westerners before the 1990ies rarely visited sites like Drikung Thil, Tsal Gungthang, Keru, Khra brug and Tsurpu. This book never have been easy to find and has in the past years become quite rare. From the library of Moravian Missionary F. A. Peter with his small name stamp inside front cover and few pencilled annotations. Peter was one of the last Western missionaries in Ladakh, his father was the only Moravian bishop there.

Monumentales Werk

Filchner, Wilhelm : Kumbum Dschamba Ling. Das Kloster der hunderttausend Bilder Maitreyas. Ein Ausschnitt aus Leben und Lehre des heutigen Lamaismus, Leipzig, F. A. Brockhaus, 1933 .

Monumentales Werk zu dem berühmten Kloster in Ost Tibet, das Filchner mehrfach besuchte und ausführlich dokumentierte. Die wohl umfangreichste Bilddokumentation zu einem tibetischen Kloster aus der Zeit vor 1959. Mit Vorworten von Lama Yongden, Berthold Laufer und Ferdinand Lessing und einer Fülle von 1706 äußerst detaillierter Anmerkungen von W. A. Unkrig, der auch erhebliche Textbeiträge zu dem Buch lieferte, auch wenn dies im Buch nicht vermerkt ist (Kapitel I, IX - XVIII). Neben Ferdinand Lessings Buch zum Yung Ho Kung die einzige Monographie zu einem tibetischen Kloster, die vor 1959 veröffentlicht wurde. Nicht häufig. Sehr schwerer Band, zusätzliches Porto wahrscheinlich.

Stapled, pages 47 - 73, 30 illustrations in the text, publication details handwritten by the author on the first page, very good condition. Very interesting contribution about the famous ceilings in the Sumtsek at Ladakh. As this was published in a somewhat strange journal for the context, this is often overlooked. From the library of the author with facsimile name stamp ("Roger Goepper Nachlass").

Bestell Nr.: 25676 32,00 €

Bestell Nr.: 26456 30,00 €

Original softcover, 202 pages, 3 illustrations, very good condition. Introduction by W. B. Yeats. Curious, poetical book with sometimes strange language. Curious, poetical book with sometimes strange language. T.S. Eliot, who checked the manuscript for the publisher wrote in his report: "Uncle William is as loony as ever. ... it's a good long introduction and I suppose it would help the sale of the book. I don't mind it being mostly nonsense but it does seem a pity that he tells some of Holy Man's best stories in his own fashion." (after Matthew Evans, in The Guardian, Saturday 5 June 2009; compare Alex McKay, Kailas Histories, 2015, p. 417f. - we thank Mr McKay for this reference). Important book on the sanctification of Kailas as the holiest mountain on Tibet - compare Alex McKay's book in this respect. Delightful. Even the reprint is uncommon.

Best. Nr. 30825

60,00 €

Original hardcover with dust jacket, 143 pages, numerous illustrations, very good condition. Monograph about a temple in Mustang, Gompa Kang near Chhuksang. Unusually for Mustang, it belongs to the Nyingma school of Tibetan Buddhism, built at the end of the 17th century. The structure of the temple is currently renovated, with little protection for the artworks, this is therefore a valuable documentation.

He, Jing (ed.): Zang zu mei shu ji cheng. Hui hua yi shu. Bi hua. Rikaze juan [Collection of Tibetan Fine Art: Murals. Shigatse. Actually Gyantse Kumbum], Chengdu, Sichuan min zu chu ban sh, 2018.

Original cloth binding with mounted illustration on the front cover in the original slipcase, 267 pages, illustrated throughout, as new condition. This volume actually depicts the 15th century murals of the Gyantse Kumbum, one of the greatest art treasures of Tibet. Text in Chinese and Tibetan only, with a translator easily usable, but the major value of this book lies in the hundreds of photos. Difficult to source. Huge book, additional shipping is likely.

Original hardcover binding, 104 pages, mostly illustrations, some text in English and Chinese in parallel, small damage to rear cover, very good condition. Important book on 15th to 17th century murals showing a mixed style influenced by the painting traditions of Tibet and China. Although the murals are in pretty bad state, these murals are otherwise not published so extensively. The text is not really to be understood without some help, reference should be made to: Karl Debreczeny, Dabaojigong and the Regional Tradition of Ming Sino-Tibetan Painting in the Kingdom of Lijiang (in: Kapstein (ed.), Buddhism between Tibet & China - with several more very interesting essays on the political impact of Buddhism).

Documentation of temple rooms in the famous watch towers of Eastern Tibet, today in China's Sichuan province with detailed plans of the towers and photos of the remaining murals and decorated, usually wooden ceilings - an astonishing surprise, as in usual books it is mentioned that especially in this region no art has survived the Cultural Revolution. Even though all or almost all of the paintings are apparently in precarious condition, there are high quality paintings amongst them. Text is in Chinese only.

220,00 €

Original cloth binding with dust jacket and illustrated slipcase, 303 pages, illustrated throughout, all edges gilt (!), as new condition. Full text in Chinese, Tibetan and English - very unusual for a monograph as this. Even so the Potala is the most famous building of Tibet, there are few books which document it properly. This is the only book we know of showing the mural paintings from the 16th century to the early 20th century, when the tomb chapel of the 13th Dalai Lama was built. Highly important therefore. There are few firmly dated paintings from the early 20th century and these provide an excellent basis to compare with Thangka paintings. Intriguingly, the publisher also included on a tipped in piece of handmade paper an original print from the large official seal of the 3rd Dalai Lama, Sonam Gyatso, who lived from 1543 to 1588. Decidedly uncommon, we find it in public libraries only at British Library, Universities of Cambridge and Zurich, State Libraries of Bavaria and Denmark, and at Berlin.

Pjotrowskij, Michail (Hrsg.): Die schwarze Stadt an der Seidenstrasse. Buddhistische Kunst aus Khara Khoto (10.-13. Jahrhundert), Mailand, Electa, 1993. 9788843547210

39,00 €

Originalbroschur, 287 Seiten, durchgehend illustriert, sehr gut erhalten. Bedeutender Katalog einer Ausstellung der Funde aus Khara Khoto, die heute in der Eremitage in St Petersburg sich befinden. Piotr Kozlov hat sie bei einer seiner Zentralasiens Expeditionen ausgegraben. Khara Khoto gehörte zum Reich der Tanguten, Xixia, welches im 13. Jahrhundert zerstört wurde und hat in seiner Kunst viele Einflüsse aus Tibet und China verarbeitet. Diese Funde sind ansonsten nur in teuren, schwer zugänglichen Werken zu finden. Vol. I: "Mc'od rten" e "Ts'a Ts'a". Nel Tibet Indiano ed Occidentale. Contributo allo studio dell'arte religiosa tibetana e del suo significato. 158 pages, colour frontispiece, 34 plates with tissue guards, very good condition.

Vol. II: Rin C'en Bzan Po e la Rinascita del Buddhismo nel Tibet intorno al Mille. 101 pages, folding map. very good condition.

Vol. III. Parte 1: 219 pages, colour frontispiece, 90 plates (including 2 colour plates), 2 folding maps, very good condition. The description of the temples of the western Himalayas, especially on Tabo, Lhalung, Chang and Nako. Unlike the documented Tibetan temples the sites documented in this volumes had not to go through the Cultural Revolution, but damages through neglect, the weather influences and renovations by the locals have also lead to considerable loss of original substance since the time of Tucci's documentation. Published during the second world war, this first edition is very scarce. For a reason not known to us this is by far the scarcest volume of the set. Text in Italian.

Vol. III. Parte II: Tsaparang. 208 pages, 152 plates, colour frontispiece and 2 colour plates, very few pencil notes on plates about the iconography or text reference, very good condition.

Vol. IV: Gyantse ed i suoi Monasteri. Parte I, II e III: Descrizione Generale dei Tempi - Iscrizioni - Tavole.

302 pages, 6 folding plates + 330 pages + 397 illustrations on plates, large folding map of the area around Gyantse, part 2 and 3 with deleted previous owner inscription, part 3 with ownership inscription of Prof. Werner Schulemann, whose famous collection is now in the Cologne Museum, few remarks in pencil referencing the text descriptions, very good condition.

All volumes original hardcover/halfcloth with the exception of vol. 1 which is in softcover binding (the only way this volume was published). There exist an English translation published in India, but the quality of the plates, already in the original uneven, is still worse in the Indian edition.

The books in this series published by Tucci are the earliest monographs with full photographic documentation of Tibetan temples. The Gyantse plate volume shows not only the treasures of the Kumbum, but even more important also there are about 60 photos of the now quite complete destroyed monasteries at Iwang and Samada whose very early sculptures were made in a peculiar style influenced by Central Asia. In the Tsaparang volume there are photos i.a. of very unique statues of a Mandala circle, which is also no longer extant. Even though the murals of Tsaparang have been preserved to a large degree, the statues documented in the Tsaparang volume have been largely destroyed. Given the technical possibilities of the time (and thus the time necessary to make photos in the very dark temples) it is astonishing, what Tucci's photographers were able to produce. The original edition published over 9 years is very scarce.

Kampfschrift, recht rassistisch, u.a. "Die buddhistische Gefahr" - "Jede passivistische und lebensfeindliche Propaganda, die sich gegen die technische und industrielle Entwicklung richtet - ist Hochverrat an der Arbeitsarmee Europa. [...] Was in Europa noch lebenskräftig und lebensstüchtig ist, lehnt diesen Kulturselfmord ab. [...] Der Buddhismus ist eine wunderbare Krönung reifer Kulturen - aber ein gefährliches Gift für werdende Kulturen. Bestell Nr.: 32174 7,00 €

Original hardcover binding with dust jacket, near fine condition. "In the spring of 1839, the British invaded Afghanistan for the first time. Led by lancers in scarlet cloaks and plumed shakos, nearly 20,000 British and East India Company troops poured through the high mountain passes and re-established on the throne Shah Shuja ul-Mulk. On the way in, the British faced little resistance. But after two years of occupation, the Afghan people rose in answer to the call for jihad and the country exploded into violent rebellion. The First Anglo-Afghan War ended in Britain's greatest military humiliation of the nineteenth century: an entire army of the then most powerful nation in the world ambushed in retreat and utterly routed by poorly equipped tribesmen. Return of a King is the definitive analysis of the First Afghan War, told through the lives of unforgettable characters on all sides and using for the first time contemporary Afghan accounts of the conflict. Prize-winning and bestselling historian William Dalrymple's masterful retelling of Britain's greatest imperial disaster is a powerful and important parable of colonial ambition and cultural collision, folly and hubris, for our times." Heavy book, additional shipping is likely.

Gruber, Ulrich: Drei Tibetische Thankas (Thangka Sammlung, Koller 1992/1993), München, 1967.

Bestell Nr.: 32024

in: die Kunst und das schöne Heim, Heft 8, Mai 1967 (ganzes Heft), auf einer Seite ist ein Foto ausgeschnitten (die beschriebenen Tibet Artikel sind nicht betroffen), kleine Notiz auf einer Seite, sonst gut erhalten. Der bekannte Nepal Reisende und Zoologe Ulrich Gruber hat zwei Artikel zu diesem Heft, etwas ausserhalb seines Fachbereichs beigetragen: "Drei Tibetische Thankas", S. 379 - 383, 2 große Farbabildungen, 2 s/w Abbildungen von Thangkas. "Aus dem Skizzenbuch eines Rollbildmalers im Himalaya", S. 384 - 386, 7 Abbildungen. Der erste Beitrag hat Bedeutung anlässlich einer Serie von 3 Auktionen erlangt, die das Auktionshaus Koller, Zürich, 1992/1993 veranstaltete. Die von Gruber beschriebenen Thangkas entstammen einer (wohl) schweizer Privatsammlung, die seinerzeit verkauft wurde. Es handelte sich um eine der bedeutendsten Thangkasammlungen, die jemals zusammengestellt wurden, mit herausragenden Bildern aus dem 14 bis 16. Jahrhundert in herausragendem Zustand und Qualität. Bei der Versteigerung entstand erstmals, nach unserer Kenntnis, größere Öffentlichkeit für eine Sammlung tibetischer Kunst und die Provenienz der Bilder wurde hinterfragt. Aufgrund dieses Berichts wurde damals gezeigt, dass die Thangkas bereits in den 1960er Jahren in den Westen gekommen waren. Im Dezember 2024 wurden 3 der Thangkas bei Sothebys Paris erneut verkauft und erzielten zusammen einen Preis von deutlich mehr als EUR 500.000. Summary of the text on the Thangka Collection also in English at the end. Nicht einfach zu finden.

Hoernle, A. F. Rudolf: The Bower Manuscript: Facsimile Leaves, Nagari Transcript, Romanised Transliteration and English Translation with Notes, Calcutta, Superintendent Government Printing, 1893 - 1912.

1500,00 €

Little later cloth binding with armorial gilt device on front cover, xcvi, 29 illustrations in the introduction (5 of which are mounted photo illustrations), sketch map, folding map and 3 plates (one double page) in the introduction, 401 pages, several errata slips glued in in the Sanskrit Index, pp. 221 to 240 are bound into the book in original state and in a revised version, 54 colour plates with facsimiles of the original manuscript pages each accompanied with a page in which the original text is printed in Sanskrit, one plate with heavy foxing, all others in fresh condition, order of the Sanskrit alphabet noted in pencil at the beginning of the Sanskrit Index, three or four colour markings in the introduction, small remains of old library label on spine, sumtous gilt device of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain on the front cover, also a stamp by them on the front endpaper and verso the title, no other library markings, very good condition. The Bower manuscript, a very early medical text, was the starting point for the race of European nations to send archaeological expeditions to Central Asia. It is a bundle of manuscripts found near Kucha and purchased by Hamilton Bower there in 1890. It immediately created huge interest and Hoernle was keen to publish an edition. Between 1893 and 1897 Hoernle published the text with an annotated English translation and illustrated facsimile plates, followed by the Sanskrit Index in 1908, and a revised translation of the medical portions (I, II, and III) in 1909. The Introduction appeared in 1912 - all parts are present here, with all illustrations. It was published as Volume XXII of the New Imperial series of the Archeological Survey of India. It is currently assumed that the manuscript was written about 500 - 550 CE, making it the oldest Indian book of its time. The first three texts are on medicine, two are on divination and last two on magical incantations. Completely uncut (the only other copy of this book we handled was slightly cut to adapt the printed text to the size of the colour plates), very large and very heavy book. Given the very long period during which the book was published in smaller portions, complete copies are extremely rare to be found.

Nauert Auktionen: Tibetische Kunst aus Österreichischen Privatsammlungen (Treasures of Tibetan Art). Sonderauktion, 10 November 2001, Wien, 2001.

Bestell Nr.: 32264

9,00 €

Originalhardcover, 155 Seiten, 425 Objekte, alle abgebildet, Wasserschaden am unteren Rand, die letzten ca 70 Seiten waren zusammengeklebt, aufgrund der Trennung des öfteren Papierverlust, auf ca 3 Seiten kleine Perforationen, zumeist ausserhalb des gedruckten Bereichs, teils aber mit geringem Textverlust. Der Ethnologe G. W. Schuster hat 2001 eine große Tibetausstellung auf der Schallaburg bei Melk in Österreich kuratiert. In er Vorbereitung ist er mit privaten Sammlern in Kontakt gekommen, die als Leihgeber für die Ausstellung fungierten, aber auch Stücke abgeben wollten, so kam es zu dieser Sonderauktion. Die Datierungen sind, nach den Fotos zu urteilen, mit Vorsicht zu genießen, vieles was als 19. Jahrhundert oder Anfang 20. Jahrhundert beschrieben wird, wird 2. Hälfte 20. Jahrhundert sein und für Touristen gemacht sein. Es gibt aber auch zahlreiche Interessante Objekte, so drei offenbar gute Reisebehälter aus stark ornamentiertem Eisen gemacht, als Reliquienbehälter beschrieben und vermutlich älter, als das angegebene 19. Jahrhundert. Eine Reihe guter Säulenteppiche, allerdings China, nicht Tibet, wenn auch wohl für den tibetischen Markt, einige gute Möbel. Die Statuen und Thangkas fast alle neueren Datums. Bi-Lingual text also in English. Zustand im Preis berücksichtigt.

2.700,00 €

Original hardcover binding, [vi], 91, 4 pages of quite small print, 9 maps (4 fold outs + 5 full page maps), binding scuffed at the edges, large stain on rear cover, some pencil markings, inside very good condition. According to a pencil note (probably not authorial) this was the copy of R.E. Pearn, maybe the son of the author. Detailed description of the evacuation undertaken in view of the Japanese invasion, covering all parts of Burma. "... those who evacuated from Burma included Madrasis, Oriyas, Tamils, Benaglis, Sikhs, Punjab Mussalmans, Gurkhas, Anglo-Indians, Anglo-Burmans, Europeans, speaking a wide variety of languages with, for the most part, no common tongue, and divided not only by race and language but also by religious principles and ancient customs which vitally affected their whole manner of life. Into all matters of the organisation of evacuation these factors entered, for one could not eat the food which another could eat, and one could not share the same quarters with another; the habits and customs of this diversity of peoples in these and in other matters had each to be considered and provided for; while the numerous languages which were used by the evacuating population produced the greatest difficulty in guiding and helping them." Incredibly detailed report, even Kingdon-Ward's journey out of Burma is described: "Mr Kingdon Ward, the explorer and naturalist, had been in Putao, which he left on the 15th May; avoiding the Chaukan Pass, he struck north and crossed the Diphu Pass, at 15,000 feet [according to a pencilled note: 16,850], and so, passing through Rima on the Tibet border, eventually reaching Sadiya in North Assam, after covering nearly four hundred miles in a period of just two months." Rare, according to the publication information, this report was published in an edition of 30 copies only! We cannot find a copy of this part (or of any other part of this report) in a public library - being classified as "Secret" on the front cover and title, this is to be expected.

Original cloth binding, x, 293 pages, frontispiece with tissue guard, 32 plates, 1 folding map (out of 2 - missing one), ex library copy with large number on spine, hinges of spine quite rubbed with smaller parts where the cloth is rubbed away (but spine still firm), inside a small college stamp on front endpaper and another (deleted) one on the title (and note "Reading Room"), otherwise no other library markings and inside quite good and fresh condition. Quite interesting, quite underestimated book - a journey to Central Tibet and Lhasa which went quite unrecognised, probably because the author, who went most of the way on foot, died shortly afterwards. As Younghusband mentions, the General set out little emotion in his diary, on which this book is based, however, the journeys show them. First edition - quite uncommon.

Bound photocopy, [vi], 74, [i] pages, the original contained few small library stamps, good condition. Copied in smaller format than the original, but complete and readable. The Foreign Office hired in 1917 the editor, George Prothero (1848-1922), a former president of the Royal Historical Society, to publish a series of books from the upcoming peace conferences and thus a series of about 160 countries was published in the end. This is explained in the editor's foreword, also that the series was first published confidentially only for the delegates to the peace conference. In the case of the Tibet part, the confidential edition was published in 1919. This is quite unobtainable, the text is identical to this issue, it contained only a sketch map in addition, as most of the other numbers in the Confidential series, which were in no case reprinted in the series for the general public. Very interesting compilation, including chapters on the political history of Tibet.

Seine Witwe lies die Arbeit durch Dr. Martin Kaiser, Kurator im Tierpark Berlin an die neuere Systematik anpassen, nicht unbedingt eine gute Idee bei einer wissenschaftlichen Arbeit, die notwendig ihrer Zeit verhaftet ist. Der Kern blieb unberührt und zeigt, dass Schäfer einer der ersten Biologen war, welche ein Ökosystem als solches erkannten und nicht nur die einzelnen Bestandteile untersuchte. Die Arbeit wurde in sehr kleiner Auflage, vermutlich 50 Stück, von Frau Ursula Schäfer selbst veröffentlicht, in öffentlichen Bibliotheken lediglich im Tibet Institut Rikon vorhanden. In Berlin, Leipzig und München sind Typskripte der Originalarbeit zu finden. Außerordentlich selten.

The main text is in 8 sections: Tibetan text, phonetic transcription, Chinese notes, Chinese translation, literary Tibetan transcription, plain Romanized phonetic transcription, English notes and English translation. The first full English translation of the famous poems by the 6th Dalai Lama, before this publication only a handful of the poems had been translated by Charles bell.
